FOURTEENTH YEAR.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, AUGUST 28 1903.

DRILLS.

SUPERIOR WHEAT DRILLS.

We will and Do save people MONEY who buy from us.

J. R. HASELTON.

-Of Local Interest.-

Grapes are abundant.

The dust has been awful.

Watermelons are so plentiful that a dime will buy one of the finest.

The soft stone used on the streets has turned into the meanest of dust.

The urchin's troubles will soon begin. See announcement of opening of Grad-school.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Christian church, in this city, October 25th.

A big crowd on Sunday's Cincinnati excursion. Only a few more will be run. Next one Sunday-week.

A district convention of the Sunday Schools and C W B M, will be conducted at Richmond Sept. the 9th and 10th.

Some fellow put "high-life" on Am Bourne's horse Monday, causing both the horse and clever auctioneer to do some high kicking.

The editor has been in Cincinnati on business this week. As we now have help which can be depended upon, we are footloose to get away a few hours each year or so.

The court house loafer is on hand, though not many of them. The loafer is a scarce article in Lancaster at present and it's seldom you see one lounging about the streets.

The remains of Mrs Martha Luckey, of Rowland, were interred at the Lancaster Cemetery Monday. She was a sister of Eld. Fowle, at one time minister of the Christian church.

Capt White, of this office, has been slightly ill during the present heated spell, but thinks he will soon be back at the case. His absence causes much interesting matter to be omitted.

The local office sold seventy-seven tickets for the $1.50 excursion to Cincinnati Sunday, and nine on the one to Louisville. The great difference in number is a pretty good argument that Cincinnati beer is the coolest.

Charley Walker, who has been running baggage on 10 and 11, has been given a run on the main line. He is now with another Lancaster boy, Capt Joe Arnold, known to railroad men as "Brimstone, the Bent-axle Conductor."

We have a few copies of the song, "My Old Homestead on the Hillside Far Away," which is being so highly spoken of and meeting such a ready sale. They are 25c a copy. Call at this office and get a copy, if you want something pretty.

CLOTHING.

We have some Suits and odd Pants we are closing out at less than COST.

SHIRTS.

Special line of Men's Shirts, we are closing at 38cts.

Logan Dry Goods Co.

The State convention of the Chris church will be held at Paris Sept 21 to 25. The last day will celebrate the one-hundredth anniversary at old Cane Ridge, Bourbon county.

The Colored Fair. The colored fair is drawing a large crowd to Stanford this week. As stated in The Record, this fair is given by the colored people of Lincoln and Garrard, jointly.

Did You Ever Try Others? Lancaster has the best telephone service in the state. If you don't believe it, try some of the exchanges in other towns and you will quickly see the difference. There's little "beefing" here.

No Preaching Sunday. Eld F M Tinder left last Sunday for Indian Creek, Harrison county, where he will conduct a two-week's meeting. There will be no preaching in the Christian church during his absence, unless otherwise announced.

Lookout Hunters. Before starting on your hunt, you had better consult the "Posted" list in The Record. This is considered sufficient warning, and land owners can make it hot for you if you trespass, after due notice has been given that the lands are protected.

Cut a Club, Walker. Our Wallacetown correspondent, Mr Walker Baker, was here Saturday, to the teacher's examination. He tells us he will again lay aside his farming and take up the barrelstave, having secured a good school in that section. He is one of the best teachers in the state.

Big Fair at Nicholasville. The K P Fair, to be held at Nicholasville Sept. 1, 2 and 3, will be one of the best in the state and a tremendous crowd will attend. The good people of Jessamine know how to entertain, and certainly do all in their power for the comfort of their guests. The stock rings are well filled.

Anonymous Communications. For the steenth time we wish to say to the writers of anonymous letters that The Central Record positively will not publish such communications. It is true some of them would make it pretty hot for the people written of, but we take no stock in gossip and have utmost contempt for those who indulge therein.

A Good Selection. The members of the Graded School met Saturday and passed suitable resolutions on the death of Mr. Wm. Ward, one of their number. They then took up the election to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Ward's death and Mr. J W Elmore was chosen, unanimously, in this selection, the board displayed sound wisdom, for a better or more honorable man could not be found.

Awakening Interest. The Kentucky Exhibit Association has awakened interest among the artists of the State and two have already offered to lend pictures for the Kentucky Building. Miss Annie Chenault Wallace, of Point Leavell, consents to the use of a Kentucky teetoch forest, 30 by 46 inches, she has painted. Mrs Edwards, of Paducah, has painted a picture of Mantle Rock, said by U. S. Geologists to equal the famous Natural Bridge of Virginia. She offers it to the Building Committee, together with some decorated china.

Have a Little Judgment. A great many Lancaster people have gotten into the habit of keeping their letters until after supper and taking them to the train to mail. Now it is all true enough that the mail clerk can accept them, but if you will look into the matter you will see where you act wrongfully in doing this. All these letters have to be stamped and tied into a thousand and one packages by the clerk. To do this, he must either neglect his regular mail or the letters handed into the car, as the run to Rowland is so short. The post-office is placed here for you to mail your letters, the night mail is not made up until 7:30, so why not hold up your end of the log, put your mail in the office, and thus save all kinds of work annoyance on the trains. Use a little judgment and put your letters where they belong.

"Oh K." The two little letters "O. K." are used on most vouchers, bills, etc., etc., by clerks and office men many times each day throughout the country; but did you ever ask them the origin of the term "O K" they always try to evade the direct question by answering that it means or signifies that any thing is "all right." This matter coming under the notice of myself a number of times, I investigated a little on my own hook along this line. After asking a number of people whom I thought ought to know, I finally struck an old Confederate Soldier who said: "Yes I know what it means and where it originated. It originated during the Civil war, and was first used by one of the best officers and soldiers that ever shouldered a gun. All orders directing the movement of Gen. Jackson's men came through his hands and after he had approved them they were sent to the different officers under Gen. Jackson. The manner in which he approved orders were to mark them "O K" which according to his conception meant "All Korrekt." That is the origin of the term.

Court Day. The largest crowd in several months attended county court Monday. Business was not brisk, and there were many complaints of the lack of rain. The candidates were on hand in full force, and the dearly-beloved voter's hand was pulled like a cow's teats.

Will Be The Nominees.

Hon P M McRoberts, of Stanford, was here Monday, and when asked by The Record if he would make the race for circuit judge, said, "If the people want me as the republican nominee, I will accept it and make the best candidate I can." That he will be given the nomination, is a forgone conclusion. Everyone who knows Mr McRoberts, knows he is a gentleman in every sense of the word, and that his ability as a lawyer cannot be questioned. He has many acquaintances in Garrard, who will go their length

The Farmer Boy.

In former times every boy was expected to learn a trade unless he intended to be a farmer. Now it is known that there is more to learn at the trade of farming than any other occupation, owing to the many details entering into the cultivation of the farm. There are now dairy schools, where pupils are given scientific knowledge of cattle, the handling of milk, butter and cheese making and feeding, and every year hundreds of students leave the agricultural colleges after having taken courses in agriculture. More discoveries have been made in behalf of agriculture than of mechanics, and the systems of farming are being rapidly revolutionized.

A Great Invention.

Engineer Henry Lammers, who runs the day trains, has about completed a couple of inventions which will work wonders in the railway world and put many thousand dollars in his pockets. Those familiar with a railroad engine know it requires the use of the driver's right hand and arm to operate the whistle. As he needs the hand for several other purposes this often proves troublesome, so Lammers put his brain to work to remedy the trouble. The device consists of a set of rods which run from the whistle valve down through the cab to the engineer's foot rest. Here is made a neat device which, by pressing either foot, the whistle-valve is opened thereby, thus doing away with the hand arrangement and leaving that free to use on his air, throttle, or for any other purpose. But his best scheme is this: Railroad men know how stock, and people too, remain on the track until the engine is almost on them. Mr Lammers has invented a plan which will work wonders in this line. A pipe running from the boiler to the front of the engine is so arranged that by opening a valve a stream of steam is thrown fully fifty feet straight in front of the locomotive. Should a man or stock stand on the track, this valve can be quickly opened and the hot steam thrown in such a great volume that he will move off and move quickly, too. This arrangement will save many lives, and work wonders on the old bony horses and cattle which are placed on the right-of-way to be killed, the owner securing the much sought-after opportunity of suing the company, a "pastime" so much indulged in by some people who seem to think railroad companies owe them a living.

Is Needed Here.

Next Sunday, the term of Dr. E. H. Pearce's pastorate of the local Methodist church expires, and he will preach his farewell sermon. While it is not definitely settled, yet the probabilities are that Dr Pearce will be sent to another field. Right here The Record wishes to call the attention of our people to the great mistake they will make if they allow him to be removed. Everybody knows and will readily admit that Lancaster is today in better shape as to law and order than she has ever been. The people also know that, while religious affairs are far from what they should be, interest in church matters is also better than for many years. Now, we do not mean to detract one iota from the work of the other ministers, but we must say that these changes for the better are largely due to the quiet, faithful, earnest, Christ-like efforts of Dr Pearce. We can speak of many instances, from personal knowledge, where he has done work that we never saw any other minister attempt. Then, again, the Godly, upright life of such a man is an incentive to any people to turn from the error of their way, to become good citizens and buildup instead of destroy society. As stated above, it will be a very grave mistake to let Dr Pearce leave, as there is an abundance of work which just such a man as he can and will accomplish. We understand that if a united effort is made, the conference will send him back for another year, and leading citizens, those interested in the moral building of the community, should take immediate steps in this direction. We are not posted as to what Dr Pearce has accomplished in his own church, but speak from the good results we see in the community at large. We need good men, true men, men who practice what they preach, and the morals of the community will never advance unless model men are put up for example of what true Christianity and Godliness will accomplish, and we know of no better example than the subject of this article.

The W C T U expects to open their Library next week and on Thursday night will give a reception and serve ice cream and cake. Everybody is invited and requested to bring something that will help furnish the rooms.

To Build Up Lancaster.

Praise it.

Talk about it.

Write about it.

Help to improve it.

Speak well about it.

Support its newspaper.

Patronize home industries.

Assist to promote enterprises for the good of the whole community.

Don't herd with "Calamity Howlers" but keep in the front rank of progress and advancement.

When you ask a newspaper to support your interest, be sure you are supporting it with your patronage and influence.

Be Kind Every Day.

Cultivate kindness of heart, think well of your fellowmen, look with charity upon the shortcomings in their lives, do a good turn for them or opportunity offers, and finally do not forget the kind word at the right time. How much a word of kindness, encouragement or appreciation means to others some times, and how little it costs us to give it!

We need not wait for some special occasion. When calamity overtakes a friend, words of sympathy and encouragement are offered sincerely enough, yet, in certain respects as a matter of course. Such an occasion calls for expression on our part, and we naturally respond. But why wait for an occasion? Why not speak the kind word when there is no special occasion?

To the course of our lives there must many times when thoughtless words are spoken by us which wound the hearts of others. And there are also many little occasions when the word of cheer is needed from us and we are silent.

There are lives of wearisome monotony which a word of kindness can relieve. There is suffering which words of sympathy can endurable. And often even in the midst of wealth and luxury, there are those who listen and long in vain for some expression of disinterested kindness.

Additional Personals.

Fred Friesle was in Louisville this week.

Miss Louise Farris is visiting friends at Silver Creek.

Mrs Georgia Lusk entertained a few friends Thursday evening.

R L Payne, of Benoit, Miss., is the guest of Mr J I Hamilton.

Mrs Hiatt, of Lexington, is visiting Mrs Emma Higginbotham.

Mr John Baughman, of Danville, was a visitor here Wednesday.

Messrs Jas Collier and J C Robinson are in Fayette county this week.

Dr Chris Farris returned Tuesday from a visit to his mother, of Kirkville.

To make old furniture look new, use Jap-a-lac varnish all colors at Thompson's.

Mrs Aileen Jackson Boggs and little son, of Richmond, are guest of Mrs. J. E. Stormes.

Miss Margaret Miller, of Richmond, attended Miss Herndon's party Tuesday evening.

Miss Allie Arnold has returned from a delightful visit to relatives in Lexington and Nicholasville.

The many friends of Mr Henry Lam are the faithful engineer on the day rains, regret to learn of his illness and trust he will soon be fully restored to health.

Engineer Johnnie Clark and Fireman Chas. Claire, of the K. C., were here yesterday attending court as witnesses in a stock case. They are two of the cleverest and best men on the road.

One Man's Worth.

At 39 Alfred H Smith, is General Manager of the New York Central and his salary is about $25,000 a year, with a private car thrown in.

It is a fine job and a fine salary.

Twenty-five years ago he was an office boy, and he did not reach his present position across lots. He worked his way up. He held all the places between $4 a week and $25,000 a year.

There are some things he didn't do. As an office boy he didn't kill time or try to avoid work. The head clerk didn't have to hunt for him, and hear, "Can't somebody else go?" or "It's Frank's turn: I went last time."

He didn't get so interested in sporting matters as to forget that he was paid to work; he didn't keep a cheap novel in his desk, to read when nobody was looking.

As a young man he was as full of energy on Monday as he was on Wednesday. He had no Saturday night toots.

Dr. Sid Isbell, Osteopath.

or Sunday orgies. He realized that he had to be in fit condition to fill his position.

It all sounds simple. He didn't cut anything out of his life that is worth having. Most of the amusement that undermines health is pretty poor fun after all.

Smith was simply sane in all things. He did his best, and at 39 he is on top and still working.

All this talk about successful men makes you tired, eh? Good—if you are a drone. It ought to drive spurs into you and make you dissatisfied with mediocrity.

If you want to stick to the bottom where your labor is in competition with the millions, don't try; keep right on viewing your employer as a slave driver. If you are drunk Saturday night you will be almost worthless till the following Wednesday, and your job will be in danger every time the boss thinks about you.

If you want to get into the field where the big salaries grow, and an occasional private car shunts along the track, stop loafing, stop kicking; use your hands some and your brains more and remember that your future depends on just one man—you. It will be what you make it. —Cincinnati Post.

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

Lancaster, Ky. August 28, 1903.

One of the many foolish moves made by "organized" labor is that to prevent any company or firm from keeping a "black list." In other words if an employee is no good, acts the rascal, an employer must not keep a record of it. The courts promptly knocked the labor organization's move into a cocked hat, and very properly so. It is all right for laboring men to band themselves together to help, aid and assist one another, but when employees set themselves up to dictate to employers, then the latter become disgusting to all right thinking people. The labor organizations should be more careful to admit only gentlemen into their ranks, so when a contract is made they can live up to it. Organized labor is beginning to see that she must act on the square, or lose out, and, as a natural result, the unions are being more respected than when they wanted the earth and fullness thereof. There is always two sides to every question, and unless both sides tote fair, the one inclined to act rascal will soon become a stench in the public nostrils.

Editor Tim Needham, of the Williamson Courier, is responsible for this one: "Another editor is suffering embarrassment through a careless compositor. Up in another county the other day a fat girl was married to a well known young man, and the editor, wishing to say something to please all concerned, spoke of 'the groom and his elegant bride.' Then the printer got in his work. He made it 'elephant.'"

A Bristol, Pa., man, weighing 500 pounds, died last week and it was necessary to use a derrick in lowering the casket into the grave. If "Fatty" went to heaven, a special set of wings doubtless had to be made for him, thus causing extra work, but if he went to the devil, his Satanic majesty could accommodate him by firing him into one of the extra large furnaces kept ready for money sharks and misers.

Our old chum, Sam Menefee, editor of the Danville Advocate, is proving a hand and a half in the newspaper business, as recent issues of that splendid paper go to show. The Advocate has been published since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, and we have never seen it better or brighter than under the present management. Here's to you, Sam. May your fondest expectations be fully realized.

Cincinnati police captains have been instructed to smell the breath of patrolmen as they are relieved from duty. This is said to be a move to detect drinking patrolmen, but is more likely done to test the physical ability of the captains, for anyone who can successfully withstand the smell of Cincinnati whisky, coupled with switzel cheese is a good man, sure.

The "dull seasons" come in every line of business. At this time of year, the printing offices are on short grazing. If cash don't begin to roll in soon we are going to buy up a lot of old pin-cushions and sell the "stufin" for a new brand of breakfast food. We will then have more money than Carter had oats.

Mr Joe Hendrickson and wife at dined meeting at Hebron Sunday and dined with Mr and Mrs Job Marsee.

Misses Alice and Alice Vanderpool, Mollie Crawford, Valrie and Joe Dunn can visited Miss Loa Duncan Sunday.

The Death Penalty.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucken's Arnica Salve ever handy. It's the best salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25¢ at McRoberts' Drug Store.

INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Interior Journal:—Stanford has only one candidate for Congress now—Hon. Harvey Helm, and in him we believe there is a sure winner. An agreement was reached between friends of Mr Helm and those of Hon. R. C. Warren Wednesday morning, whereby the latter gentleman retired from the race. To make a long story short, this is the way the matter was settled: Mr. Warren selected Judge James P. Bailey, Messrs. George B. Cooper, Wm. S. Burch and Eph Pennington, to represent him and Mr. Helm chose Messrs. S. T. Harris, R. R. Gentry, J. C. Reid and Joe T. Embry. They met at the court-house and several votes were taken on the question as to which of the gentlemen should continue in the race. The vote stood four to four for a number of ballots and then the change came. Mr. Helm received five votes to Mr. Warren's three and all was over. Mr. Warren cordially accepted the verdict and as usual will be found battling for democracy in season and out. While congratulating Mr. Helm, we feel a decided sympathy for Mr. Warren who deserves something good from his party. For years he has done yeoman service and there has not been a campaign in which he did not take front rank in the battle against the republicans. No better democrat lives than this grand old war horse, who is as active for democratic supremacy in his own defeat as he is in his victory. Mr. Helm will now begin an active campaign and if he does not land the nomination it will be a surprise and disappointment to many. He is a spleen did young democrat and his class record and good work for the party he loves entitle him to anything he wants. He represented Lincoln county in the Legislature with credit one term and is now rounding out his second term as county attorney, which office he has filled most acceptably. He is a gentleman of commanding appearance, is well educated, can meet his opponents on the stump or in the bushes and in every way he is equipped to make the race for the high office he seeks. We believe he has an excellent showing to the nomination and shall do all in our power in assisting him to do so. Three cheers for the sterling young democrat and abundant success to him!"

What P. C. Means.
The Fox Studio.
One of Danville's finest and oldest established photographers is Edward H. Fox, who for the past thirty years has been connected with the same line of art. Mr. Fox is not an ordinary photographer, but is a designer of portraits, a famous water color painter, and stands pre-eminent in the art world. He is an artist by gift and talent, while he conducts his studio for a commercial living. Mr. Fox has received words of praise and eulogy from the U. S. Government for his high-class work. He makes all kinds of plain or fancy portraits of the finest quality at the most reasonable prices. Mr. Fox has been a resident of Danville for the past thirty years, and stands A No. 1 in his profession. The college for the past twenty years have been grouped at the end of each term. He devotes his time and attention to high-class work only. Any picture taken by Mr. Fox is warranted to be perfect in pose and finish. Frames, mouldings, engravings and easels are sold. Mr. Fox has served for twelve years under John Proctor as the official geological photographer of the survey of Kentucky. He is also the official photographer of the Q & C Railroad, and during the World's Fair at New Orleans photographed the entire route.—Danville Advocate.

Mr. Fox is in Lancaster every Friday. As frequently stated in The Record, his work is giving universal satisfaction and he is kept very busy every trip. His Lancaster gallery is the best equipped in the state and is handsomely furnished. The Lancaster people appreciate his good work, and words of praise are heard on all hands.

Stay in the South.

Men who leave the South today in the hope of bettering themselves are acting directly contrary to common sense, and are reversing the rule which is becoming more and more effective—the rule of seeking the best opportunities in farming. In the troublous time of twenty-five or thirty years ago it is not surprising that thousands of young men left their native States in the South. At that time the door of opportunity might have appeared to be closed forever. But conditions have radically changed. Now not only are there hundreds of opportunities where there was but one twenty five years ago, but the chance to make opportunities has been wonderfully increased. Let the young men of the South seek that chance at home before they give heed to fairy tales about other sections.—Southern Farm Magazine.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all Coughs, Colds and Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed by McRoberts' Drug Store. Price 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

PERSONALS.

Miss Rate Henry is visiting relatives in Danville.

Shelby Tribble, of Richmond, was here Sunday.

Mrs L L Walker is visiting relatives in the country.

Miss Jennie Arnold, of Kansas City, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Bettie McFall, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs W R Gaines.

Mr Clifton Rhodes, of Danville, is the guest of Waller Hudson.

Mrs Marv Bryant, of Chattanooga, is the guest of Mrs John Lear.

Mr and Mrs Mike Kennedy, of Crab Orchard, are the guests of Mrs Lucy Sutton.

Mr Thornton Kemper has returned to Danville after a pleasant visit to relatives here.

Misses Josephine and Mary Hudson, of Danville, have been visiting Miss Lizzie Hudson.

Mr George Harden and wife, of Covington, have been visiting the family of Dr J W Grant.

Miss Marietta Crow, of Louisville, was the attractive guest of Misses Rella and Mary Arnold.

Mr Frank Robinson, of the Ky. Supply Co., Danville, was here Monday and paid us a pleasant call.

Mrs Robert Rice and daughter, Miss Mary, of Pittsburgh, Penn., have been guests of Miss Rella Arnold.

Messrs Shirley and Robert Elkin, who spent a short vacation with their parents, Col and Mrs Elkin in this city, have returned to their posts of duty, after a pleasant visit to their old home. It would be difficult to find two more deserving young men.

Mr W G Kemper, cashier of the People's Bank, at Paint Lick, was in town Monday, and gave us a nice order for printing. Mr Kemper is one of the most efficient and accommodating bank men in the state, and his courteous treatment to all has made a host of friends to the thriving Paint Lick institution.

The party of Miss Annie Herndon Tuesday evening, was a brilliant affair and brought out a crowd of young people and admiring friends. The veranda rooms and yard were beautifully decorated and seats placed tête-à-tête, or grouped conveniently for conversation for the guests. Miss Herndon is a very pretty and charming debutante and a great favorite socially. The table decorations were exceedingly pretty. The menu was elaborate and served in beautiful style. About fifty guests enjoyed the evening.

Mr W M Bogle has returned to his home in Owensboro, after a pleasant week's visit with Mr W H Wherritt and wife.

Misses Kate Walker and Bertha Burnside have returned from a pleasant visit to Mrs C K McGugin, of Howard, Ohio.

Danville Advocate:—Miss Mary Noel has returned from a month's sojourn in Garrard county.... Miss Saline Noel is in Louisville.

Mr J E Stormes gave an elegant dinner Friday evening in honor of Mr W M Bogle and wife, of Owensboro, Mr William Wherritt and wife, of New Orleans.

Middlesboro Herald:—Shirley Elkin the genial and obliging clerk at the Middlesboro Hotel returned Monday evening from a few days' visit to his home in Lancaster.

We had a most pleasant visit from Ed Walton, the versatile editor of the Interior Journal, Monday. Ed's visits always bring sunshine into our gloomy and monotonous den, as he has something pleasant to say, and don't tell troubles. We wish there were more like him.

Among the visiting candidates Monday were Hon Harve Helm, candidate for congress, Hon P M McRoberts who will be the republican candidate for circuit judge, Hon Con Bell, the democratic nominee for judge and Chas. Hardin, democratic candidate for Commonwealth's attorney.

We had a most pleasant visit from our good friend, Mr John Lackey, of McCreary. Monday. Although he is now in the afternoon of life, yet he is a remarkably well-preserved man. He is one of Garrard's most useful citizens, and many friends trust he will be spared many more years of health and happiness.

Mrs William Cook pleasantly entered her club members and lady friends Thursday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with rare flowers and magnificent palms. Progressive anagrams were played, Mrs S C Denny winning the prize, a beautiful little fan. Refreshments of ices and cakes were served and a most enjoyable afternoon spent.

WATCHING

For the husband's homecoming does not usually outlast the early months of marriage. And this not because of any lessening of affection, but because the wife finds the time for the evening meal come before she is ready for it. She blames herself for her lack of energy, but the truth is that her vitality is being reduced by unhealthy drains, and the labor that seems so light a few months ago now taxes all her strength.

Women who feel weak and tired out will find new strength in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

"April 1900-my strength gave out and I was obliged to go to bed, suffering with female weakness, also had ulcers and inflammation," writes Mrs. Ellen D. Rollin, of Piercerville, Ripley Co., Ind. "I tried a physician's remedy for a month but got no better—only weaker. Tried another medicine six weeks, but got no better; was quite discouraged. My husband got me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and taking it twice a month I was able to do my housework. Took twelve bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' also four of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I regained my strength and weigh twenty-five pounds more than I ever did before."

Accept no substitute for Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser in paper covers is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

PREACHERSVILLE,

J H Thompson sold a nice horse to J C Siler for $200.

W P Dishon is building a beautiful house in which to live.

Mrs Pennington, of Walnut Flat is visiting Mrs B D Holtzclaw.

Mr G W Evans is visiting his daughter Mrs Hutchins at Danville.

Lewis spoonamore sold a young horse to Phillip Thompson for $75.

Several from here is attending the Tates Creek Association in Madison.

Capt James Johnson sold a mule last week for $75.00 also C W Hoskins one.

Rev H B Cockrill of St Louis has been here several days on business and attending the meeting.

Miss Whitley, of Wilmore is conducting the singing at the church this week and it is well done.

The meeting at the Methodist church is progressing nicely as Bro Johnson is a good preacher.

Mr and Mrs Daniels are having their beautiful home painted inside and out which adds much to the appearance.

The bridge over Dix river has been pronounced to be in dangerous condition, so there is no traveling done over the Preachersville and Stanford pikes until new pillars are built.

PUBLIC SALE.

As administrator of Ruth Aldridge, and agent of her heirs, I will on SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1903, on the premises at 10 o'clock P. M., sell to the highest and best bidder 275 ACRES OF LAND on the Lexington and Lancaster turnpike road, and adjoining the property of William West and near Mark's bury post office property. Said property is well watered, good improvements and the orchard on said place. Also a dwelling house, barn, etc. etc. can call on H. D. Aldridge, Jr., on the premises. Terms made known on day of sale. H. D. ALDRIDGE, Asst. of Ruth Aldridge, and same as agent of her heirs. This Aug. 24, 1903. Am Bourne Auct.

SONG OF THE MORTAR SHELL.

Sounds Like Millions of Wild Geese Winging Their Way Just Overhead.

The mortars at Fort Hancock look like pocket pistols in comparison with "Little Animosity." The officer in command sits in a small hut on a bridge about the powder magazines, giving his directions to the crew. In whichever direction the eye may wander there is a gray mass of metal, an angel of death. It may be a rifle or a mortar. Both Miles and Merritt pronounce Fort Hancock impregnable, says the New York Press. There are 16-inch rifles, 12-inch rifles, ten-inch rifles, two mortar batteries of 16 guns each and a pneumatic dynamite gun. The turn of a wheel or the raising of a lever controls the directing of many tons of steel, so perfectly balanced are the "angels." Springs resisting the recoil of the mortars look like elephants' legs. "Betty" is aimed at an angle of 45 degrees. A whistle like a postman's blows three times. "Are you ready? Gridley? Fire!" Some one concealed presses a button. The shell sounds like 4,000,000 wild geese making their annual fall pilgrimage from Labrador to Currituck. Wagner has tried to imitate it in the flight of the Valkyries in "Die Walkure." It is said that no man has even seen a modern mortar shell in flight. Long after its song has ceased, and you have forgotten about it, comes the splash out of the earth.

Old, musty hay should be used for bedding only. During the summer season there is nothing better for horses than to cut a few handfuls of grass in the morning and allow it to wilt during the day. If fed at night it will be found much more palatable than the hay from last year's crop.

Many horses are supposed to lose appetite for hay when the difficulty is only due to their rejection of old material.

The oat crop of Oklahoma will be the largest ever yet harvested. Seventy-five to 100 bushels to the acre is the yield indicated in some of the newer portions of the territory.

There has been 150,000 bushels of wheat delivered to our Paris merchants. The prices for same have ranged from 70 to 75 cents. The average yield for Bourbon is about 12 bushels to the acre.—Paris News.

J R Durratt, of Marion county, put 10 head of cattle on grass April 2, at which time they weighed 503 pounds each. He weighed them Aug. 2, and they weighed 815 pounds each.

During this time they ate nothing but grass. The gain of 312 pounds each in the 4-months is considered extra good and one which pleases Mr Durratt very much.

Harrodsburg Herald:—John I Vandall & Bros. know how to run a farm as well as a livery business. They sold Dan Moore, Jr., $1,000 worth of mixed timothy and clover hay off 75 acres, and will have enough left to feed the stock in their stable and on the farm until the next crop is raised.

W B Kennedy, a Paducah tobacco broker, has just shipped 2,250 bags of tobacco he bought for a foreign government to Mayfield and Paducah within the past two weeks. The value of the tobacco was $250,000 and the freight alone was $20,000. This was the largest shipment ever made out of Paducah.

Have just received two loads of the Ash Mares from South Dakota, these are Percheron breed and will weigh from 1,200 to 1,600 lbs. Every one is bred to an Imported Percheron stallion, and these are acknowledged to be the best bred draft horses in the west, and can show the farmers the best horses for the money than anybody in the state. Don't write but come and see what we have. E. H. Beazley, Stanford, Ky. 2-28-22

A Physician Healed.

Dr Geo Ewing a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years write his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure; "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success. C C & J E Stormes. 1 m

Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass-hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by all druggists. 1 m
